

Welcome!

MSU IT Exchange

October 24, 2008

Agenda

- Technology Strategy Outline
 - IT Planning Principles
- Personal Communications Reimbursement Policies
- EBSP
- Beta.mail.msu.edu

IT Planning Principles

- Planning principles for a federated IT environment
 - What infrastructure and services should be in common?
 - What local?
 - Why?

Central V. Local Considerations

MSU's Industry Segments

- Higher education -- instruction & research in over 100 fields; libraries; museums; etc.
- Medical services -- human and animal
- Publishing
- Farming/agriculture
- Housing -- residence halls and apartments
- Hotels and conference centers
- Performing arts centers and events
- Broadcasting (television, radio, webcasting)
- Arena and flat space centers and events
- Athletics and sports events; golf courses
- Financial credit/loans
- Utilities (electrical power; water)
- Communications (regional data networking)
- Others...

IT Planning Principles

1. Technology Plan
2. Centrally-supported Technology Objectives
3. Drivers and Rates of Change
4. Centralization v. Decentralization (“Localization”)

Reimbursement Policies

- Mobile Communications
- Residential Internet

Enterprise Business Systems Project (EBSP) ebsp.msu.edu

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP ON THE CAMPUS OF MSU
BESPARTANGREEN

bespartangreen.msu.edu

Next Meeting

Tuesday, December 16, 2008

3:30 p.m.

Erickson Kiva

ideaExchange
knowledgeExchange resourceExchange

ITExchange
computing.msu.edu/ITexchange

10.24	Erickson Kiva	8:30 am
12.16	Erickson Kiva	3:30 pm
<hr/>
2008
02.04	Erickson Kiva	3:30 pm
04.08	Erickson Kiva	3:30 pm
<hr/>
2009
06.10	IT Conference	8:00 am
		Kellogg Center
<hr/>
2009		